- ❖ To lose weight, let go of stress, hatred, anger, resentment and the need to control others.
- ❖ To improve your ears, listen to the word of God.
- ❖ Rather than focus on the thorns of life, smell the roses and count your blessings, giving thanks for each one of them.
- ❖ For poise, walk with knowledge and self-esteem.
- ❖ To strengthen your arms, hug at least 3 people a day. Touch someone with your love.
- ❖ To strengthen your heart, forgive yourself and others. Don't worry and hurry so much.
- ❖ Rather than walk this earth lightly, walk firmly with determination and leave your mark.
- ❖ For the ultimate in business, casual or evening attire put on the robe of Christ; it fits like a glove but allows room for growth. Best of all, it never goes out of style and is appropriate for any occasion.
- ❖ Doing these things on a daily basis will certainly make you a more beautiful person.

PEACE IS NOT THE ABSENCE OF TROUBLE,
BUT THE PRESENCE OF GOD.

OLD ADVICE FOR A NEW GENERATION

"I'm glad my children have grown up. I'd hate to be raising them in today's world." How often we hear that sentiment expressed in our material, immoral society! Trying to instill spiritual values in a new generation of young people is seemingly an insurmountable challenge. Where do we turn for guidance as we attempt to keep our children on a proper path -- a path that will enable them to establish a foundation in their lives which is firmly planted on knowing right from wrong?

There are no new answers to that question; no new approaches to take. Indeed, to deal with the problems of the present, we must look back at the solutions the Church offered in the past. Moral truth can never change, no matter what may be going on in the world around us. The enduring teachings of the Church Fathers still must be our "resource manual" for correctly raising our children. Here are a few wise thoughts that have been passed down to us:

- "If from the beginning we fix good rules for our children, good habits will be formed. Let us not allow them to do what may be agreeable, but hurtful to them. We may need to admonish them and warn them. Remember: we are charged to keep our children free from evil." — St. John Chrysostom
- "Rear your children in the Lord. Teach them from their infancy the Word of God. Discipline them when needed, and render them respectful to authority." — The Apostolic Constitutions
- "Teach your children this lesson: the rewards of evil are temporary. The rewards of Godliness are eternal." — St. Cyprian
